New Scholarship Fund Honors Class of '68

Fund to provide tuition assistance to young men graduating from Most Holy Trinity and entering The High

DETROIT – University of Detroit Jesuit High School today announced the establishment of a new scholarship at the Detroit high school. The Trinity U of D Jesuit Scholarship Fund was created by Paul and Susan Venegas in honor of Paul's 1968 U of D Jesuit classmates. The new scholarship is an endowed fund with the purpose of providing tuition assistance to young men who graduate from Detroit's Most Holy Trinity Catholic School and attend high school at U of D Jesuit.

Mr. Venegas graduated from Most Holy Trinity in 1964 and received his high school degree from U of D Jesuit in 1968. Venegas said, "The similarities between the two schools are that both U of D Jesuit and Trinity made the commitment to stay in the city of Detroit. Both schools stayed through the rough times, and are doing well now." The new scholarship fund will help families provide their sons with a seamless quality Roman Catholic education starting at Most Holy Trinity and continuing through U of D Jesuit.

Those who wish to contribute to the Trinity U of D Jesuit Scholarship Fund can send their donations to:
U of D Jesuit High School
Development Office
8400 S. Cambridge Ave.
Detroit, MI 48221

Please make checks payable to U of D Jesuit and write "Trinity UDJ Fund" on the memo line of the check. You may also donate online at <https://www.uofdjesuit.org/TrinityUDJFund>

University of Detroit Jesuit is Detroit's second oldest high school. Founded in 1877, it has educated young men to be – "Men for Others" – through academic excellence, faith formation, and community service for 141 years. It remains Metro Detroit's most ethnically, geographically, and culturally diverse high school. 918 students are enrolled in grades seven through twelve from more than seventy communities in six counties. More than one-third of the students qualify for tuition assistance totaling $2.2 million annually.
